

Of Hope

Series: The Pursuit (Part 3)

Interim Pastor Greg Johnson

Celebration Message: April 11-12, 2020

Defining Moment – is that point in time when something significant happens and it changes your life forever.

Everybody has a story.

At the heart of this story is suffering and pain...but the primary character in the story is a suffering God upon whom the weight of our wounded sinful world falls.

What if the depth of his suffering actually confirms his identity instead of disproving it like the world thinks?

What if the redemption of all history is squeezed down to one weekend...and what if that weekend was a defining moment for all human history?
